

8th Annual SIM: Race Based Stress and Trauma: Impact of Racial Disparities in Systemic Injustice Conference Evaluation & CEU Assessment – Return by Friday, March 11th

Thank you for your participation in Mid Shore Behavioral Health’s 8th Annual SIM Conference on Friday, March 4, 2022. If you are requesting 4.5 Category II CEUs, this evaluation must be completed accurately and submitted by Friday, March 11th at 5:00 p.m. Click here to complete this evaluation virtually. Please e-mail Julie Slivka with submissions or questions.

Name: _____

Email: _____

Event Code: _____

Section 1: Conference Evaluation:

Please rate the following statements using this scale:

Strongly Disagree (1) Disagree (2) Neutral (3) Agree (4) Strongly Agree (5)

_____ William Jernigan demonstrated expertise in their presentation.

_____ Doncella Wilson demonstrated expertise in their presentation.

_____ Omeaka Jackson demonstrated expertise in their presentation.

_____ Amanda Tondin demonstrated expertise in their presentation.

_____ Herbert Dennis, Charles Scott, and Lamonte Cooke demonstrated expertise in their presentation.

_____ Richard Lewis demonstrated expertise in their presentation.

_____ Marquis Bryson demonstrated expertise in their presentation.

_____ The information was presented in a clear and understandable way.

_____ There were adequate opportunities for questions, discussions, and/or participation.

_____ I am leaving this conference with information, resources, and/or tools I can use.

What I liked most about this conference: _____

Do you have any feedback about the online experience of this conference?

OVERALL, I WOULD RATE THIS CONFERENCE AS:

- Very Poor Poor Fair Good Very Good Excellent

Suggested topics for future MSBH conferences and trainings: _____

Section 2: CEU Assessment:

Please complete all ten of the following questions accurately to receive CEUs.

1. Provide a brief definition of what the SIM is.

2. How has systemic racism historically criminalized African Americans and people of color?

3. What are some examples of contributing factors that lead to racial and ethnic disparities?

4. Provide one strategy for deterring racial disparities in the correctional setting.

5. What programs or services can detention centers provide inmate populations?

6. What percent of individuals in Maryland's prisons are African American?

7. How can we support individuals reintegrating into the community after incarceration?

8. What does Club F.E.A.R. stand for?

9. When does the mid-shore Forensic Mental Health Group meet? (Visit MSBH's vFairs booth)

10. Recall three takeaways from the Q&A session.

Sign and date below:

Signature

Date